

LEWISTON ROUNDUP

August 17, 2019 | Idaho Central Credit Union Sponsors Lewiston Roundup

LEWISTON, Idaho – The Lewiston Roundup Association (LRA) and Idaho Central Credit Union (ICCU), Idaho’s largest Credit Union, announced today that they have agreed to naming-rights of the LRA Grounds as “Idaho Central Credit Union Outdoor Arena.”

ICCU is the largest state chartered financial institution in Idaho and is expanding into more north Idaho locations. ICCU currently operates four branches in north Idaho and is in the process of building a new branch in Moscow which will open in the first quarter of 2020.

ICCU has a full range of online financial services available to serve current and new members of the credit union including online and video chat. Members are able to access their finances 24/7 through eBranch online banking and mobile devices.

Idaho Central Credit Union’s mission is to help members achieve financial success. Idaho Central is a full-service, federally-insured financial institution and is ranked as a top credit union in the nation in returning value to its members.

Throughout the state, ICCU employs over 1200 team members and serves over 370,000 members with 36 locations. ICCU has been ranked a top performing credit union in the nation by S&P Global, and is the leading lender in auto loans and mortgages in Idaho. ICCU has a strong focus on community involvement and team members support the communities they are in by providing their time, treasure and talent.
